General Information

1. Memberships & Fees

To join the CWC, please fill out the registration form and select your membership category using the information below. You will find payment details on the next page.

Ordinary Members

An Ordinary Member is any person with an official CERN access card.

Associate Member

An Associate Member is a person having no official connection with CERN, who must be presented by a Club Member, normally at a Coffee Morning.

You will need to ask for a CERN Access card by emailing mnkienzle@gmail.com

You have to ask for a renewal of your CERN access card every year.

Staff Association Members

A Staff Association Member is any Ordinary Member who pays dues to the CERN Staff Association.

Families

One adult and their children.

If you have a Family Membership and require a third party (such as a nanny) to occasionally accompany your children to CWC activities, you can request a day pass (renewable 5 times per year) for this additional adult.

Please complete the Day Pass Form at least 48 hours before the requested access date to submit your request to CERN.

4. Insurance / Civil Liability

Important : Every member must be covered by personal accident insurance

We remind you that for all club activities (indoors or outdoors), all participants are responsible for themselves, their own children and those who have been entrusted to them.

The Staff Association has insurance covering all of its clubs' premises and property (furnishings, computers, etc.), but not personal insurance/civil liability.

The Club declines all responsibility for damage to personal property, as well as traumatism or bodily harm to adults or children, be they club members or not.
